INFORMATION

Markaz As-salam, situated in the serene neighborhood of Ndeke, Ndola, Zambia, stands as a beacon of spiritual growth and educational empowerment for both Zambian and non-Zambian residents alike. This prayer center is deeply rooted in its mission to foster Islamic values, promote Qur'anic teachings, and serve as a hub for spiritual activities that unite the local and wider Muslim community.

At its heart, Markaz As-salam functions as a sanctuary for prayer and meditation, providing a space where Muslims can come together for communal prayers, religious celebrations, and special Islamic events. The center is not only dedicated to enhancing the spiritual lives of its members but also to instilling Islamic morals and principles in the younger generation.

Markaz As-salam extends its influence beyond prayer by offering a comprehensive Islamic education system that integrates both religious and formal education. The center runs schools from primary to secondary levels, ensuring that students receive a balanced curriculum that includes standard academic subjects alongside intensive Qur'anic studies, Islamic jurisprudence, and moral teachings. These integrated schools aim to nurture well-rounded individuals who excel academically while staying firmly grounded in their Islamic faith.

Additionally, Markaz As-salam offers vocational training programs designed to equip young men and women with practical skills for the workforce. These vocational courses are tailored to meet the demands of the local economy and empower students to contribute positively to society while upholding Islamic ethics in their professional lives

Markaz As-Salam's educational offerings ensure that students are well-prepared for both worldly success and spiritual fulfillment, making it a vital institution for the community. Whether as a place of worship, learning, or personal development, Markaz AsSalam is committed to serving as a center of excellence that enriches the lives of its community members while advancing the noble mission of Islam in Zambia.
